Ursula wanted a drastic change from her short, pixie hair cut. Her cropped top is great for the workplace, but she wanted a fancier look for the many parties and soirees she plans to attend this holiday season. Our team of experts did not disappoint! This long, lengthy look with a heavy bang was just what she had in mind for her new and improved look. To achieve this fabulous style, texturize the hair with an African Pride Texturizer, for easier smoothing, and then blow-dry with a handheld blow-dryer. To get this look, we suggest a sew-in weave.

Sensational offers a wide variety of weaving hair in all lengths and textures, including yaki, synthetic and pre-styled hair. After your hair is texturized and rinsed, apply a conditioning hair-dress to combat dryness, and then blow-dry. Starting from the nape, cornrow the hair around the perimeter of the head in an "around the world" formation. Sew in tracks following the direction of the cornrows and create the closing in the crown area. Next, cut the bangs straight across and then flat iron them with a Hype Hair Ceramic Flat Iron. Begin spiral curls in the back, section by section. Pin the sides of the hair with hairpins and spritz with holding spray for a head turning new look!

eyes and make them even more appealing? Line the upper and lower eyelids with a black eye pencil from Posner for eyes that pop instantly! Next, blend in a touch of rosy colored blush from MAC to the cheeks for higher looking cheekbones and finish up with a touch of lip-gloss to complete your adorable new look!
